REMEMBERING...

REMEMBER WHEN YOUR ALARM WENT OFF ON THAT DREADED MORNING IN AUGUST AND YOU THREW IT ON THE FLOOR? ONCE AGAIN IT WAS TIME FOR ANOTHER YEAR AT WHITING HIGH SCHOOL. REMEMBER HOW THE FRESHMEN HURRIED AROUND, NOT QUITE KNOWING WHAT TO DO? AS EACH YEAR GOES BY YOU'RE MORE AT EASE AROUND HERE.

DO YOU REMEMBER WALKING TO SCHOOL WONDERING WHAT THE YEAR WOULD HOLD FOR YOU? HOW WILL I DO IN MY CLASSES? WILL I MEET NEW PEOPLE? WILL WE BEAT CLARK IN ALL OF OUR SPORTS? WILL I HAVE DATES FOR ALL OF THE DANCES? AND MOST OF ALL--WILL THIS YEAR EVER END?

REMEMBER HOW YOU GOT THROUGH YOUR FIRST DAY THINKING HOW TERRIBLE THE YEAR WOULD BE? BUT THEN YOU HEAR THE ANNOUNCEMENT FOR PRACTICE AFTER SCHOOL. AND A FEW OF THE CLUBS ARE ALREADY STARTING. AND TICKETS ARE ON SALE FOR THE GAME ON FRIDAY. AND YOU FOUND OUT THAT YOU WON'T HAVE ANY TESTS UNTIL NEXT WEEK. MAYBE THIS YEAR WON'T BE SO BAD AFTER ALL!

REMEMBERING SPRING AND SUMMER 1982...

THE CLOSING OF THE LAST SCHOOL YEAR BROUGHT MANY MEMORIES FOR THE STUDENTS. SOME OF THE THINGS THAT WE REMEMBER ARE: THE PROM, THE BLOOD DRIVE, THE BANQUETS, THE PLAY, AND THE SPRING SPORTS.

IN THE SUMMER THE STUDENTS WENT TO CAMPS, ON VACATIONS, WORKED AT SCHOOL, PLAYED ON TEAMS, AND LOOKED FORWARD TO ANOTHER YEAR.

LACK OF EXPERIENCE SHOWS

Do you remember the boys track team? The team, which consisted of only three seniors and eight freshmen, found themselves outmanned in almost every event. Remember how they didn't have enough participants in the running events? Coach Klosek, in his first year as coach of the track team, was also the last coach, because boys track is being replaced by soccer.

At the sound of the gun, R. Kuss is off like a gazelle.

GOLFERS "DRIVE" TO DESTINY

Remember when Mike Wunder hit Peter Gurekovich in the stomach with a golf ball? And remember being sandtrapped?

Last year's golf team, consisting of only nine people, finished their season with a record of 6-10. Their conference record was 6-8, which enabled them to place 6th in the conference. The Oilers were under the guidance of new mentor, Mr. Daniels.

Golf members include (1st row l-r): B. Pustek, B. Wunder, (2nd row) M. Wunder, J. Chorba, J. Witczak, E. Wunder, (3rd row) Coach Daniels, P. Gurekovich, J. Augustyn, J. Sandrick.

J. Preneta pushes herself to cross the finish line first.

Jumping over the bar with grace is S. Pivovarnik.

K. Shebib shows that she can do the Toyota jump.

Remember how good it felt when you won a race, or set a new record? Last year's girls' track team was feeling great. Despite their record of 4-11, they managed to break eight records. Only two members, Sue Pivovarnik and Jeannie Kometz, went to Sectionals. They both remember how nervous they were, but felt that the experience would help them in future meets.

OILERS TAKE 1st

Remember waiting for the baseball season to get here? When the season started we practiced on the basketball courts until it warmed up enough to practice outside. When it was time, we dreaded raking the infield and trying to line up second base! Once the season began, the team waited for the Clark games. They beat Clark twice in regular season play. How about Dan Bobos getting the winning hit in the second game? And waiting for Curosh to knock one in the lake everytime he came up? Remember playing Hammond High on the day of prom? The game went into extra innings, and everyone was anxious to pick up their dates. Remember when we went to River Forest at 7:30 am for the Ingot Classic? And remember getting thrown off of people's property by the police for playing frisbee? We finally won the Tournament, 11-1.

Bachusz, A. Curosh, B. Evanich, D. Dollins, Coach E. Fritz.

All-Conference pitcher A. Curosh was a familiar sight on the mound.

B. Evanich holds his opponent close to first base.

IN INGOT CLASSIC

The Oilers are congratulated after a game well played.

The opponents find D. Bobos a tough out at the plate.

T. Evanich hustles to beat out an infield hit.

"SPRINGING" INTO ACTION

After the spring concert, the percussion section fools around.

As the spring approaches, it seems to stir up anticipations of prom, banquets, graduation, and other events.

What do you remember about the spring? Was it the choral-band concert, which had a theme of "Rainbows"? Or was it seeing Missy McGowan pass out at the senior sponsored blood drive? And remember Moose Skowron yelling at everyone to be quiet at the sports banquet? He turned out to be a pretty funny speaker. After these events, final preparations for prom and graduation were made, and another school year came to an end.

The chorus sings another number.

These freshman girls are eager for the activities to begin at the sports banquet.

J. Fritz assures Mr. Fehrman that he'll be alright.

NEW PRODUCTION AT WHS

William Samuel Scrounge (B. Evanich) takes a notice to heroin Miss Elsinor (M. Grenchik).

while Mrs. Gotrocks (G. Myers) and her maid (K. Shebib) look on.

Pianist P. Renda and waiter N. Fehrman before they entertain the guests.

Samuel Scrouge (B. Evanich) and Hattie Hateful (M.K. Hruskoc) toast the death of Mrs. Gotrocks, which they have so deviously planned.

Last year's play production was quite different from past productions here at WHS.

This was the first year a musical melodrama/dinner theatre was performed.

Do you remember being entertained by the twenty singing waiters and waitresses? They sang songs from the gay 90's, and then served a spaghetti dinner. Remember when Chris Pope dropped a salad plate? Or when LaRhonda Jones opened a tea bag and poured it into someone's cup?

Remember seeing the play "Laborers of Love"? Many long hard rehearsals were spent memorizing lines, singing songs, and blocking. Remember hearing about Ms. Wozniak's car windshield being smashed during play practice? Or when Mary Kay Hruskoc fell on stage while rehearsing her song? And remember when a replacement was needed, Karen Shebib took the part having to memorize all her lines in such short notice?

Overall, the whole production was a success. And plans are being made for this year's play—a western musical.

The entire cast of the "Laborers of Love".

SHARING THE NIGHT TOGETHER ...

Do you remember May 7, 1982, at the Holiday Inn Mart Plaza in Chicago? Many couples remember that night.

The junior class officers and their sponsor, Mr. Laub, made all the arrangements, such as selecting a place to hold the prom, choosing a band, entertainment, a theme, dinner, and prom favors.

The awaited evening began with couples taking their prom pictures. The couples then sat down to an elegant dinner of Roast Tenderloin and then were served a dessert of Chocolate Mousse. After dinner, remember being entertained by George Johnstone, a comical magician? The evening was accented by the dancing to the music of Raintree.

C. Zahorsky, M. Bachusz, D. Rogers, and M.

The lead singer helped couples share the night together.

Mr. Lovasko sets up S. Pivovarnik and D. Polak for their pictures.

It is easy to see that B. Dado and P. Bachusz enjoy each other's company.

... JR. SR. PROM

Wunder are just about ready to enjoy their fruit cocktail.

Everyone was amused by the entertainment.

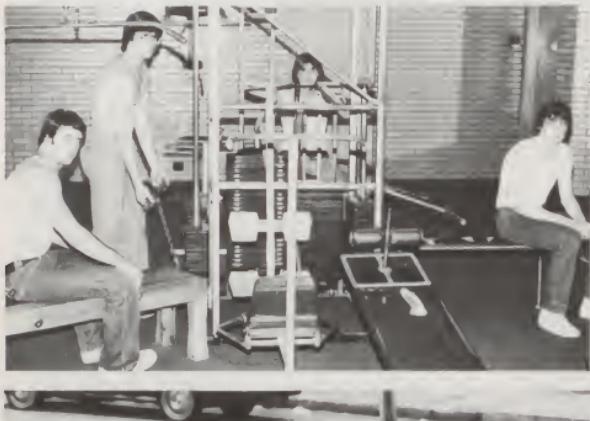

S. Flores and A. Curosh are stopped for another picture while trying to leave for the prom.

Mr. Zubeck goes ape with Mr. Klosek and the entertainer, Mr. George Johnstone.

SUMMER DAYS

The opening of the weight room during summer months had many people pumping iron.

Hard working J. Copeland sells raffle tickets for the cheerleaders during frontier days.

B. Mateja wins a new friend at the carnival.

Keeping in shape during the summer are L. Raycroft and N. Fehrman.

DRIFTING AWAY...

Summer work pays off for J. Justak.

The Whiting High School Band; that's perfection.

What a summer! All of those memories. Remember hearing the band drilling every morning until the parade? The Fourth of July finally had nice weather! Do you remember going to the carnival? Where were you when all the electricity went out right before the fireworks?

Do you remember standing up town, and being chased by the police? All of the great times at the beach? Working at school was fun, remember always trying to hide from the cleaning ladies?

Not very long after the summer fun was in full swing, football, volleyball, and cross country members started practices. Do you remember the long, hot workouts early in the morning? Those were tiring! Fall sports signaled the start of school and the end of a great summer.

REMEMBERING ACADEMICS...

DO YOU REMEMBER TRYING TO FIGURE OUT A SCHEDULE THAT WOULD INCLUDE ALL OF YOUR CLASSES? OR DECIDING IF YOU SHOULD TAKE COLLEGE PREP COURSES? AFTER ALL OF THAT WAS DECIDED, YOU HAD TO WORRY ABOUT OTHER THINGS--HOMEWORK, TESTS, AND GRADES! ALTHOUGH IT SEEMS LIKE YOU GO THROUGH ALOT FOR YOUR CLASSES, IT'S ALWAYS WORTH IT.

Solving logarithmic programs, M. Wunder and K. Gyure use a slide rule.

Remember doing word problems about Moe, Larry, and Curly in Algebra? Or always getting stuck next to someone who understood Mr. Allen when you thought he was speaking a foreign language? And always playing games on the computers like stats, pac man, and asteroids?

It seems that no matter how many years of math you take, it'll never add up!!

B. Stephens uses several compasses to get the "point" in geometry.

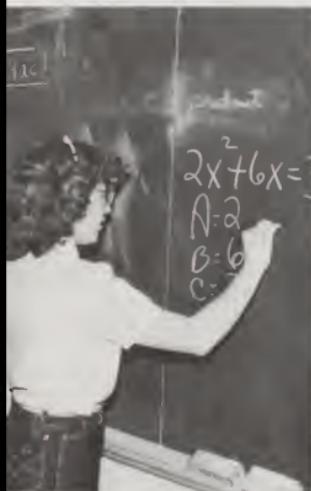

J. Sandrick helps C. Pope try to find out how to turn the computer on.

ADD UP

Trying to figure out percents are D. Dollins and J. Anserello.

Showing off his knowledge of theorems, R. Wunder solves the area of the triangle.

Using the quadratic formula to solve her problem in algebra is K. Hansen.

Looking for different conic sections, J. Filipek and M. Johnson use model cones.

GRAMMAR, GREAT BOOKS,

A few sophomore students dress-up for an oral book review.

Remember the nervousness before reciting a speech? Trying so hard not to forget anything while you're in front of 30 people. Or how you tried to maintain your composure while doing your pantomime in Mrs. DePeugh's class. And do you remember hearing for the first time one of Ms. Wozniak's sneezes? Or senior year preparing your term paper that took a month to complete. Remember how it was just tossed aside when you handed it in?

In all your years of English there will be a lot to remember—but hopefully it will be what you've learned.

Mr. Laspas uses the overhead projector to help some of his students.

Juniors, J. Copeland and J. Puente, decide which book they would like to read for their book reviews.

AND GOOD TIMES

C. Watters aids Mrs. Hanis in grading papers.

P. Oprisko tries to memorize the parts of Globe Theatre.

In his role as Julius Caesar, N. Fehrman shows his love to his wife Calpeirnia, M.J. Grdina.

GREAT MOMENTS

Remember your civic's class when you finally learned the peony is Indiana's state flower? And remember the many government students who were so good in geography they had to strain their eyes in order to find the location of the U.S.? Remember how Coach Nick imitated you behind your back and when you turned around he would pretend he hadn't? Or the time Mr. Mihalo lectured a certain junior class about their attitudes the day before Easter vacation and one student broke the silence by wishing everyone a "Happy Easter"? And if you were lucky enough to have taken careers in 1982, you were occupied with more than just writing reports. The career students were given a job interview by a McDonald's manager.

These are a few of the memories that are captured during four years of social studies.

H. Ulloa tries to explain to B. Williams why the south is better than the north.

M. Barnes and L. Jones disagree on the location of Whiting.

J. Wilkening tries to convince N. Mazur to vote for him.

IN HISTORY

Economists B. Dado and M. Klein fill out a tax form.

Looking for an economic minute is R. Mindas.

Deciding if her career choice is worth while, M. Tobias uses a "coin" machine.

Mr. Adkins tries to figure out who is the current problem in current problems.

WATT'S NEW

Remember taking biology and learning to use a microscope to identify plants and animals? Or dissecting frogs, grasshoppers, and other animals for the very first time? Do you remember learning all the symbols of the elements in chemistry? Having to learn the theory behind ideas and then applying them to experiments in advanced chemistry. Remember studying and constantly reading about new concepts and ideas to support the results of your experiments? When you were in chemistry, remember combining the wrong chemicals and having your project bubbling over and smoking up the room? Remember thinking you did something wrong since your formula looked and reacted differently? But who knows, among these students we may find another Einstein.

Working together these students try to accomplish their physics experiment.

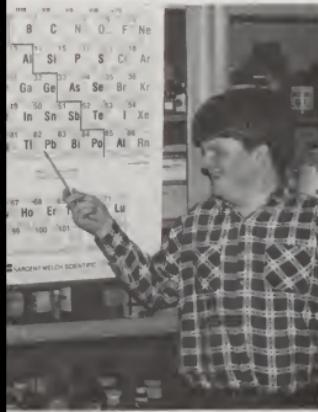

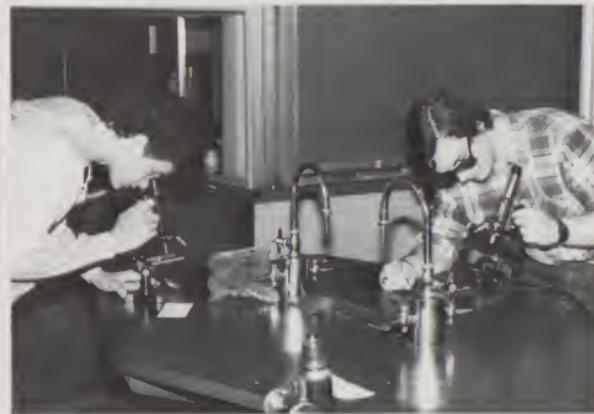

Trying to measure the amount of light are P. Renda, B. Daly, and M. Wunder.

S. Ulloa and P. Stincic pour sulfur in the flask to be heated.

IN SCIENCE?

Getting overly involved in their project, J. Hart and V. Montero wonder who is really in control.

K. Brimer names the element symbols to the class.

Using this precise scale, J. Winebrenner weighs the unknown sample.

MUSIC AND ART CLASSES

Music appreciation and art are two required courses at WHS which students really enjoy.

Remember learning material on various composers of different musical periods and when we had to name the keys on a piano? Those interested in singing may take chorus. Remember the Christmas and Spring Concerts? They were both a success.

Remember when the art classes paper mached snowmen during Christmas? Do you remember drawing funny pictures of each other? Those interested may go on to advanced art or ceramics.

Music classes are conducted by Miss Benson and art by Mrs. Demkovich.

Advanced art students M. Klein and C. Vavrek work on the projects of their choice.

Chorus students sing to the accompaniment of Miss Benson on the piano.

Freshman G. Danielides gives Mrs. D. a hand by hanging some of their mobiles.

BRIGHTEN UP CHRISTMAS

First year music students try to name the notes on the staff.

R. Kometz takes his finished ceramic bell out of the kiln.

Working with water colors is fun for A. Johnson.

For a music assignment, R. Rooke and B. Stincic play a piece of modern music.

"LET'S GET PHYSICAL"

Remember getting up for school and going right to the gym half asleep and trying to either weight-lift, play volleyball, swim, or run? or after lunch, on a full stomach, try to exercise? The only exercise everybody wanted to do was sleep! Remember trying to comb your hair with fifteen others trying also?

The physical education program at Whiting is designed to help students get acquainted with different sports.

Remember having a test almost every other day? How about memorizing all of the bones and muscles in your body? Do you know what the trapezius muscle is? How about a sphygmonanometer? Well if you don't know, you can find out these answers and many others in health class.

S. Harbin shows that he is ready for Stanley Cup Finals.

J. Augustyn and D. Tinsley have trouble at agreeing on the location of the human heart.

J. Dobrowolski trains for Mr. Universe.

Proving that she's in shape, J. Fritz goes for 1 sit-up.

R. Williams shows the proper technique for serving a "birdie" in badminton.

C. Arredondo and M. Parker square off with their giant Q-tips in "Pillow Polo."

HABLAS LA DEUTCH?

Remember your freshman year when you entered Spanish or German class? You were probably so scared and wondered if you would ever be able to learn about language, especially when you had enough problems just trying to learn English. Can you remember trying to memorize new verb forms and answer grammar questions when you weren't sure what was being asked?

Remember doing your first dialogues on camera, in front of the class, and realizing after you had finished that maybe it wasn't as hard as you thought?

Remember taking the second year course thinking you knew much of the language only to find that you knew very little compared to the third year students?

But remember even though a foreign language is difficult it can always be helpful in the future.

J. Macak plans her grocery list.

D. Raycroft plots his move against W. Fehrman in a game of German Scrabble.

Playing Spanish password, these students

Do you think N. Polak knows what these words mean? Don't let her fool you.

Sharing his knowledge of lab procedure is M. Rowden.

trade their next clues.

Spanish III students learn new traditions and customs from their guest speaker.

WHITING AT WORK—

Remember memorizing which finger corresponds with which key? Constant repetition of typing gives you the skills to increase how many words per minute you type.

Do you remember seeing those squiggly lines and wondering what they meant? Shorthand provides a short cut of writing things out long hand. The period of time used is also shortened.

Remember trying to figure out what goes in the debit and what goes in the credit columns? Bookkeeping and accounting teach you how to keep records correctly and learn to analyze them.

Making sure his fingers don't fall off. D. Dollins types his lessons.

In bookkeeping K. Rickard studies a problem before putting it on paper.

M. Postell shows that the adding machine can still be useful in accounting.

N. Henson smiles at the camera after she has pointed to the wrong problem.

BUSINESS AS USUAL

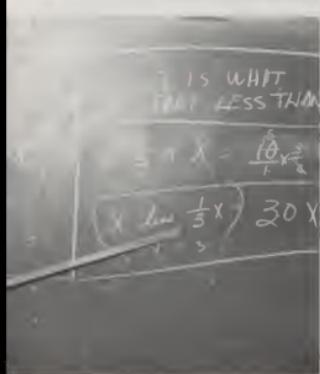

Instructing the class on the correct way to hold your fingers is C. Smolen.

M. Roman and J. Ciers show that three hands are better than two in using a Data Processor.

While Mr. Faulkner dictates, S. Simants tries to increase her speed.

THINGS DON'T ALWAYS TURN OUT

G. Riggins readjusts the hem as T. Johnson models her latest fashion.

C. Pope begins his project by lining up the wood on the electric saw.

Constructing a new plan, J. Buranosky uses both precision and accuracy.

H. Gonzales busily works on a new invention.

Completing his woodshop assignment is D. Brown.

THE WAY THEY'RE PLANNED

Think back to the times when you were walking down the halls smelling the cookies and wishing that you were in cooking class. Remember when the inexperienced students were always dropping platters of food and breaking dishes?

Remember how in sewing class you tried to follow a pattern and learn to use a sewing machine, constantly sewing uneven seams and pinning up crooked hems?

Remember coming out of woodshop covered with sawdust or leaving printshop with face and hands smudged with ink? Can you remember making projects that never stood straight and never turned out quite the way you wanted? You took your project home and hoped your parents wouldn't notice the uneven legs or cabinets that wouldn't open and close smoothly.

J. Filipk takes a quick look in the oven hoping her meal will be a success.

Finishing up the dishes, C. Johnson calls it a day.

Running the TATTERS through the press is B. Daly.

REMEMBERING OUR ORGANIZATIONS...

FOR A SCHOOL AS SMALL AS WHITING, WE REALLY HAVE MANY CLUBS AND GROUPS TO JOIN.

REMEMBER HOW LONG IT TAKES TO GET EVERYONE TOGETHER TO HAVE MEETINGS OR PAY DUES? IT USUALLY TAKES ABOUT A HALF OF A YEAR TO GET THINGS GOING.

THE CLUBS WERE REALLY BUSY THIS YEAR-- WITH HOMECOMING FLOATS, FIELD TRIPS, AND SELLING PROJECTS-- AND WERE QUITE SUCCESSFUL!

REFLECTING ON MEMORIES

Sitting in on the set of "Kidding Around" is R. Kantowski.

Remember when the Reflector and Tattler staffs went on a field trip to NBC in Chicago and saw such famous news commentators as Carol Marine and Warren Saunders? Also remember when the tour guide at the SUN TIMES warned his group of the danger involved in turning around on an escalator? Additionally, the two staffs visited the Museum of Science and Industry.

Remember how Mr. Vrabel and "Bump" made their daily visits to the Reflector room for coffee?

Do you recall the day Bob Pustek's five o'clock shadow showed very distinctly?

Remember how the yearbook of 1982-1983 was a summer yearbook instead of the traditional spring yearbook?

M. Hruskocy lends a hand to P. Wajvoda's layout.

Staff members (sitting 1 to r): L. Gacsko, B. Mateja, P. Wajvoda, K. Shebish, D. Close (2nd row): S. Rokosz, K. Kubacki, R. Kantowski, M.

Hruskocy, J. Fritz (standing): B. Evanich, B. Filipek, B. Pustek, B. Justak.

Since the yearbook is going so "smoothly", editor K. Shebib thinks extra pages should be added.

K. Kubacki often is swamped with work to meet deadlines.

Future newscasters?—D. Close, J. Fritz, and L. Gacsko practice on the set of the NBC news.

Putting final touches on her layout is S. Rokosz.

REPORTING

Always with work piling up, M. Grenchik finds time to proofread the stories.

While traveling back in time, M. Mazur and K. Gyure are amazed at what the past news had to say.

E. Hruskocy gains some knowledge about the newspapers in America.

SCHOOL NEWS

In the darkroom, J. Winebrenner enlarges a picture for the front page.

Keeping a steady hand B. Harding splices a column of the Tattler.

Editor M. Harbin looks over K. Gyure and C. Zahorsky's shoulder to make sure everything is in line.

Tattler Staff: (kneeling l to r) B. Ciers, D. Rogers, C. Zahorsky, (standing) Mrs. Hanis, J. Winebrenner, M. Harbin, M. Mazur, M. Grenchik, K. Gyure, B. Harding, T. Evanich, J. Justak, and E. Hruskoczy.

Do you know what goes on every 5th hour in room 308? The Tattler staff does! The Tattler staff is not only busy preparing the next issue, but thinking of new ideas for future editions.

There are many interesting articles such as sports, interviews, features, and news on clubs, classes, faculty, etc.

This year the Tattler staff has taken many surveys. The newspaper also has a poem writing contest.

The Tattler class went on a fieldtrip to the Sun Times Building in Chicago where they learned how a fast pace—everyday newspaper is prepared.

The Tattler is distributed Bi-weekly.

SPANISH CLUB ES MUY GRANDE

Spanish club officers include (l-r): M. Rowden, Sec.-Treas.; S. Rokosz, Vice-Pres.; B. Mateja, Pres.; Mr. Taylor, Sponsor.

Do you remember breaking the pinata at the Christmas party? And being at the bottom of the pile? Or going to the museum of Science and Industry then eating at Nuevo Leon? These are a few of the activities the Spanish Club did this year. In the annual Homecoming parade, the club was represented by their float, "Charging For a Victory." The Spanish club retained their title of being the largest organization in the school.

Members include (1st row, l-r): J. Justak, M. Fitzpatrick, P. Wajvoda, K. Shebib, L. Gacsko, J. Fritz, M.K. Hruskoc, C. Stincic, S. Pivovarnik, P. Renda, M. Grdina, (2nd row): N. Fehrman, K.G. Kompiel, T. Evanich, S. Harbin, T. Kidd, P. Oprisko, J. Livingston, (3rd row): A. Hanis, C. O'Brien, C. Watters, B. Bonchik, (4th row): V. Montero, A. Santay, R. Valko, G. Piper, M. Opachan, T. Grenchik, R. Livingston, (5th row): T. O'Keefe, T. Marcotte, J. Hart, K. Hansen, N. Mazur, A. Johnson, A. Jansky, J. Jaros, M. Ramirez, (6th row): B. Justak, M. Mazur, P. Lund, D. Burgan, M. Owens, D. Kometz, L. Filipek, T. Kender, K. Williams, (7th row): D. Kovacek, P. Mundo, M. Evanich, B. Mateja, M. Grenchik, J. Augustyn, (8th row): M. Harbin, K. Gyure, C. Carroll, S. Blesic, O. Terry, G. Danielides, E. Fritz, R. Cantu, J. Wilkening, B. Cinotto, (9th row): P. Bachus, T. Bobos, B. Evanich, M. Aicher, D. Brannon, D. Bobos, C. Gregor, A. McHale, K. Kuss.

GERMAN CLUB: ALIVE AND WELL

German Club members include (1st Row, l-r): W. Fehrman, L. Bucko, K. Carroll, R. Rutherford, D. Rogers, M. McGowan, (2nd row l to r): D. Raycroft, M. Wunder, B. Daly, W. Simmons.

Remember when M. McGowan ate all the chocolate from the advent calendars she was suppose to sell? This was one of the fund raisers of the German Club this year. The club gained a few additional members this year, but remained the smallest club. This year was the first time the German Club did not enter a float in the homecoming parade. Next year we will hopefully see one, once again, to help improve our parade.

Nothing can stop W. Simmons from participating in his German Club obligations.

W. Fehrman tries to persuade D. Kovacek into purchasing an advent calendar.

German Club officers are Vice-President K. Carroll; Pres., D. Rogers; sponsor Mr. Ulrich; Sec. R. Rutherford; Treas. G. Cabrera.

THEY EARN THEIR LETTERS

Members include (1st row, l-r): R. Kantowski, M.K. Hruskoc, D. Dobrowolski. (2nd row): S. Harbin, P. Oprisko, N. Fehrman, M. Rowden, (3rd row): J. Kometz, T. Butler, J. Preneta, T. Marcotte, M. Grenchik. (4th row): J. Semanchik, C. Stincic, K. Shebish, P. Wajvoda, T. Evanich. (Not all members are pictured.)

What is green and white and walks all over the city of Whiting? A Whiting student proudly showing off his or her lettermen's jacket or sweater, of course.

Remember trying to earn that letter? Remember the first day of practice when you practiced so hard for a starting position? Then when you reached the starting position, you hoped to earn that "W". Or even if you didn't start, you hoped that you would play enough to earn a "W". Then when you received it, you just couldn't wait to tell everyone then join the "W" Club.

Well, that's what the "W" Club is all about, you have to work hard to earn your letter.

Working hard to earn her letter is J. Preneta

Three lettermen proudly show off their "W" sweaters while cheering at a football game.

1982-83 officers are (l-r): Vice Pres., J. Kometz; Pres., S. Pivovarnik; Spon. Mr. Rebeay; Sec.-Treas., K. Kubacki.

SPIRIT BOOSTERS

During the bon-fire, part of the Senior float—"Pac-man"—burns.

For the Booster Club, probably the most important task is getting through the Homecoming Parade.

Remember rushing to fix the Queen's float after the wind practically blew it away? Or how about when a football player had to pick the Homecoming Queen nominees up to get on their float? Then after the parade, there was the bon-fire where the fire almost got out of control!

But, besides organizing the Homecoming Parade, the Club organized the Sectional Dance. Remember getting up early Saturday morning to decorate, then dancing that night to the music of NEXT?

The Booster Club also sold ribbons and pins this year. Remember trying to sell your Homecoming ribbons the day they were supposed to be turned in? And they also gave a ceramic basketball to Mr. Basketball, for the third year in a row.

D. Polak, Mr. Basketball, holds the ceramic basketball the Booster Club gave him.

GIRLS DONATE TIME

Cheerleading is not all fun and games. It requires a lot of time, patience, and hard work. This year the cheerleaders raised money to buy new uniforms by having a raffle on Frontiers Day. Remember waking up each morning in the summer at 8:30 for practice to get ready for the 4th of July parade? Remember rushing to finish the float once the 4th came? We also can't forget being called upon to talk at the bonfire, and the failing attempt to have male cheerleaders! Remember practicing pyramids when Deanne Fitzpatrick and LaRhonda Jones bumped heads and ended up getting stitches? The cheerleaders were also required to make a hoop for each home game. Do you remember Tommy Haluska breaking through every one of them? And then there is Becky Mateja's embarrassing moment—she did an acrobat for the other team during the starting line-ups! These are some of the moments we will remember long after the season is over.

Junior varsity cheerleaders (top to bottom): L. Jones, D. Fitzpatrick, and S. Rokosz.

Varsity Cheerleader, R. Kantowski, shows the meaning of school spirit.

Even the cold weather can't keep the Whiting Cheerleaders from cheering.

AND EFFORT TO SPIRIT

Varsity cheerleaders (l-r): R. Kantowski, S. Simants, B. Mateja, and M.K. Hruskoc.

Freshmen cheerleaders (top to bottom): D. Kometz, K. Williams, A. Hanis, and M. Murzyn.

All the squads get together to form their collapsing pyramid at the Whiting-Clark rivalry game.

While L. Jones leads the cheer, S. Rokosz checks to see if the people are responding.

THEY'RE PLAYING

Playing to perfection is the trumpet section.

Remember marching in the hot sun in a parade? Or having to walk through the mud at football games? Remember having to be at school at seven in the morning to practice while everyone else was at home sleeping? Getting up and trying to march, playing your instrument, and staying awake at the same time was sometimes a difficult task. These things are events that the band partakes in. Always showing school spirit and giving encouragement to the players is a very important part of sports.

D. Rogers shows that there is always time for a smile.

Band members attempt to be chefs at the pancake breakfast.

Playing at a basketball game, the band proves that practice pays off.

OILERETTES BRIGHTEN HALFTIME

The Oilerettes perform one of their human pyramids.

Timing is a key fundamental in doing a routine.

Remember how you just couldn't wait till halftime came, just to see the Oilerettes perform? Or how exciting it was to watch Maureen Fitzpatrick twirl the FIERY baton? Or how about the human pyramids they formed? Or even when they made their pom-poms look like the letters W, H, and S? Well, don't think it was just all fun and games. The Oilerettes went through long and tiring practices early in the morning, just so they could entertain the Oiler fans. Under the leadership of new sponsor Natalie Nastav, the Oilerettes hope to do better things next year.

During the Homecoming parade, J. Hart flashes a smile for the camera.

1982-83 Oilerettes include (l-r): D. Banaszak, G. Jambik, R. Rutherford, J. Hart, M. Fitzpatrick, S. Cribari, K. Saksa, K. Hansen.

PRESENTING—THE TALENT SHOW

The 1982-83 Drama club.

For the third straight year, the Drama Club has presented its' annual Talent Show. Do you remember Lynn Gacsko (1st place) pantomiming "Rotation" by Herb Alpert; Rat and the Mice (2nd place) who sang "Do You Believe In Love"; and Tom "Elvis" Evanich who did his Elvis Presley impersonation? The club plans to produce many more Talent Shows in the years ahead—as long as there is student participation.

B. Evanich and M. Tobias were this year's M.C.'s.

Performing her 1st place winning technique is L. Gacsko.

Drama Club officers (l-r): K. Kuss, Sec.; J. Baranowski, Treas.; J. Copeland, Vice-Pres.; Miss Benson, sponsor; and H. Ulloa, Pres.

SMALL BUT ENERGETIC

Remember when the physics club had only seven members because Mr. Sorota waited until the second semester class was set? And remember when we chose the officers: Pres., Carl Raycroft; Vice Pres., Bill Daly; Sec., Patti Renda; Treas., Mike Wunder; and Sgt. at Arms, Bob Pustek? Almost everyone in the class held an office!

Members include (1st row, l-r): M. McGowan, B. Pustek, P. Renda, (2nd row): Mr. Sorota, M. Wunder, K. Gyure, B. Daly, and C. Raycroft.

Do you remember working hard for several weeks on the homecoming float? And making decorations for the Sports Banquet? Remember our Valentine's Day party? We raised money by selling buttons. And this was the first year that the club started up again.

A SUCCESSFUL YEAR

Student Council officers are (l-r): Pres.—C. Stincic, Vice-Pres.—K. Shebish, Sponsor Ms.

Sharon Sheline, Sec.—M.K. Hruskocy, Treas.—M. McGowan.

When one recalls the Homecoming dance they tend to forget the people organizing it. Well, those people are the Student Council, along with the help of new sponsor Ms. Sharon Sheline. And remember when the faculty and police used to organize their annual basketball game and use the proceeds for the athletic department? Well, this year, with the help of the Student Council and three Chicago Bears, all the proceeds went to Marty Ewing. Also, remember the Blood Drive? With the help of the Student Council and other students, the school reached its goal in receiving eighty-three blood donors, hopefully enough to win the traveling trophy for the second year in a row. And last but not least, remember seeing those plain brown bulletin boards in the halls? Well, this year the Student Council officers decorated them with pictures of students and faculty members.

In the future, the Student Council hopes to become more involved in student government.

"We want YOUR blood," says H. Ulloa to M. Roman.

INITIATION FORMAT REVISED

Remember how the National Honor Society of 1982-83 got involved in a great deal more activities than the previous years?

Remember when the new junior and senior members were announced? Then shortly after, they were formally initiated at a ceremony with their parents present. The new members didn't have to endure an informal initiation this year.

A few of the productive activities the NHS did were: roller-skating marathon for the Big Brothers and Sisters, a food drive for the needy, and a few donations to the Marty Ewing fund.

M. Harbin accepts a plaque of recognition for participating in a rollerskating marathon for the Big Brothers and Sisters.

"BUMPY" ROAD ...

Trying to fool her opponent, T. Butler dinks the ball over the net.

Do you remember that first practice in the hot gym? Everyone woke up the next morning with tight, aching muscles. Remember the first game against Clark, when Kelley Kubacki hurt her ankle and Gerri Riggins attempted to drive Miss Benko's car to the hospital? Remember having to practice until 10:00 p.m. after losing to Gary Wirt? Or when the team had Morton, the 8th ranked team in the state, on the ropes winning 11-3. Remember watching the game films? Everyone was worried about how they looked rather than the match itself. These are moments that the varsity team remembers.

This year Tina Butler, Melody Postell, and Sue Pivovarnik were named to the all-conference team.

Before the game, P. Wajvoda practices her serves.

YEAR OF REMEMBRANCE

This year's football season was one of remembrance. Remember how you felt when it was time for the Clark game? Or better yet, when we won 14-11 and Coach Nick was so happy, that he kissed the crowd. This was the first time Whiting had beaten Clark in SIX years! Then came the wet Calumet game. But despite the rain, the underdog Oilers managed to pull through with a 14-7 unexpected win. Even a loss to the highly respected Laporte LaLumiere team was something to remember. The Oilers were the first team to score against them in two years. And who could forget the Homecoming game—beating North Newton and increasing the Oilers hope for a playoff berth. But remember the last two games? Most Oiler fans would like to forget traveling to Lake Station, then traveling 2 1/2 hours to Jimtown. Well, the Oilers lost these last two games, which dampened their playoff hopes.

Despite being eliminated from the playoffs, the Oilers still had a respected 6-4 record, which will always be remembered.

THANKS FOR THE MEMORIES!

This year's football season will be remembered by Oiler fans but even more so by Coach Nick Crnkovich. Coach Crnkovich, better known as Coach Nick, retired this year as head football coach after ten years.

Before coming to Whiting, Coach Nick was the head football coach at Andrean High School in Gary. There, he compiled a record of 35 wins and 11 losses. He also had a 22 game winning streak and two consecutive undefeated seasons (1968-69). Four of his teams were ranked in the top ten in the state and he was named Hammond Times Coach of the Year in 1968 and 1969.

In 1972, Coach Nick came to Whiting. His record over ten years was 57 wins and 40 losses. In 1974, his team was state semifinalists and eight out of his ten years at Whiting, his teams were playoff contenders, most of his eliminations being in the last few regular season games. In his last season at Whiting his record was 6-4.

Coach Nick will always be remembered as one of the funniest men around. His actions and words are always good for a laugh.

Whiting High School bids Coach Nick farewell, good luck, and THANKS FOR THE MEMORIES!!

REMEMBERING HOMECOMING WEEK

J. Ciers, W. Fehrman, P. Wilkening, and B. Dado were some of the punk rockers seen during spirit week.

Do you remember homecoming week? Monday was "Sweat Shirt Day," and Tuesday was "Hat and Jersey Day." By this time, all of the dresses were bought, flowers were ordered, and floats started.

Wednesday was "Dress Up Day". Remember seeing all of the punk rockers and bobby soxers on Thursday which was "Rock Era Day"? That night was the parade. We all spent such a long time getting ready, and it was over in five minutes. But it was all worth it.

Do you remember the pep assembly on Friday morning? The senior girls did a good job on their skit, which was a medley of songs describing the team.

Remember all of the nervousness about the game, spirit awards, and who the queen and Mr. Football would be. The juniors won all of the spirit awards, much to the disappointment of the other classes. And the students chose Karen Shebib and Robbie Kometz as their queen and Mr. Football.

All of the festivities were highlighted by the dance on Saturday night.

Displaying senior spirit is C. Smolen on "Green and White Day."

"You're a Sucker If You're Not An Oiler," say sophomores T. Marcotte and J. Prenta.

J. Kometz, S. Witczak, and S. Ulloa tell the rest of the juniors to "Go Animal!"

Seniors tell the team to "Gobble Em Up!" on their Pac Man float.

The underclassmen attendants were (l-r): and junior, R. Kantowski, freshman, D. Kometz; sophomore, S. Rokosz, escorted by P. Bachusz.

The senior homecoming nominees were L. Gormley, escorted by T. Bobos; K. Shebish, escorted by P. Gurekovich; and C. Zahorsky, escorted by P. Bachusz.

For the second year in a row, the juniors win the spirit stick.

WHAT A SEASON TO REMEMBER!

Although most people will say that the 1982-83 basketball season was just another season, there are quite a few memories that will linger in most of our minds. Who could forget the first game of the season—traveling three hours to Logansport, Indiana? Remember the size of their band? It was bigger than our whole school! Or winning the game at the last second with a 30-foot jumper. Then came three consecutive losses, the Oilers showed they weren't a team to be taken lightly—losing to Gary Wirt 46-41 and Gary West Side 73-67. Next was the exciting Clark game—another one we won at the last second with a 30-foot jumper! And who could forget the Noll and Hammond High games? Although they were exciting, the Oilers failed to win. Then came another Clark game, unfortunately Clark on in overtime 69-59—exciting but heartbreaking. Another exciting game was the E.C.R. game. But this time the Oilers lost at the last second 64-63. And who could forget the last game against Lowell? David Polak sure wouldn't! He managed to score 43 points to break two school records for most points in a single game and a season. So this just wasn't another season, but one where the Oilers managed to have a respectable 13-8 season record and a 3-4 conference record. After all, some said we weren't supposed to win five games all season.

Scoring an easy two is D. Polak.

the up-coming season.

When the season finally started the girls were fitted with new shoes, and raring to go. Season highlights include two victories over cross town rival Clark, and a whomping victory over Bishop Noll, setting a new school record of 77 points in one game. Do you remember all of the injuries? There was one injury a game for the first three games.

Then there are always the memories of getting ready in the locker room. And you can't forget the annual pig-out at Shakey's Pizza?! That's great! As a matter of fact, so was the whole season.

WE'VE GOT

No one will forget the wrestling season of 1982-83. It finished with a record of 5-7.

Remember that first day of practice? It was enough to make you quit then, but determination pulled us through. How about those challenge matches for positions? Those were pretty exciting.

Think about the day of the first meet. We had to travel out to Lowell. That long bus ride with no food and all of us were starving.

Of course who could forget our victory over Clark? It was close all the way through, but we pulled it out by 3. That was probably our biggest highlight.

Although our team was young and inexperienced, we proved ourselves worthy of our opponents.

Team members include (l-r, kneeling): C. Sarvanidis, J. Livingston, E. Boland, M. Franco, C. Burosh, S. Jancho. Standing: Coach Rebey, M. Ramirez, G. Koleszarik, J. Flores, D. Brown, M. Senics, H. Gonzales, Asst. Coach Angel. Not pictured: M. Franco.

S. Jancho tries to pull his opponent down for two points.

Squeezing his hardest for the pin is M. Franco.

ALL THE MOVES

Trying to reverse the hold, C. Sarvanidis cautiously reaches around to grab hold.

J. Reeves "uses his head" to gain points against his opponent.

Taking a deep breath, G. Koleszarik prepares to work for a switch.

M. Stapleton puts the ball up for an easy two, as M. Polak and S. Haviley look on.

Even though the Varsity teams, at Whiting High, get more recognition than the Junior Varsity, the J.V. can not be forgotten. After all, who could forget how they struggled past such teams as Hobart, Clark, and Laporte LaLumiere for wins? Or how hard they tried, in losing causes, against E.C.W., whom they played twice in a week, or West Side and E.C.R., losing to them in overtime, or Morton and Noll losing to them with no time on the clock? Then there were always the unforgettable injuries. Mike Polak started to play in the middle season due to the football injury, Chris Klein and Ed Hruskoc were out with knee injuries, and Danny Bobos sat out a few games with a sore thumb and a black eye.

But despite the non-recognition and injuries, the J.V. Oilers managed to end their season with an 8-11 record overall and a 1-6 conference.

Look! It's a bird, a plane—no it's just E. Hruskoc and C. Klein getting ready for a rebound.

1982-83 members include (standing l-r): C. Klein, D. Bobos, E. Hruskoc, F. Roman, B. Filippek, K. Kompiel, Coach R. Vrabel. (kneeling): Manager M. Rowden.

D. Bobos waits and hopes that the ball will be passed to him.

JV INHERITS NEW COACH

The junior varsity girls' basketball team had a very successful season, finishing with a 15-3 overall record. Remember that nine game winning streak? That really started the season with a bang.

First year coach, Debbie Jacobson, introduced her great "home made" drills. The girls remember those grueling Saturday morning practices, but they paid off. How about those fun bus rides? They were an experience in themselves. Remember those last four games? They ended their season with four big victories. Now that's the way to do it!

Trying desperately to fight the pin, W. Simmons looks for advice from the bench.

Some of the first things you have to know about wrestling is learning how to work all your moves and knowing what maneuvers your opponent might use.

Remember the incoming freshmen struggling at the practices? Also remember having to skip meals and having to run at lunch to stay in your weight class? It was worth it though, because we sure had lots of fun.

when they walked out on the floor?

After the dance most people went out to dinner. Remember waiting an hour, for pizza or just for a place to sit? Or when certain senior girls snuck up on a couple in Whiting Park?

Most of the memories of this year's dance will be held by the attendants. But others will remember how much fun their evening was—alone with dates or with friends.

The sectional attendants were (l-r): junior, S. Simants and M. Zubeck; sophomore, D. Close and M. Mazur; freshman, T. Kender and M. Ramirez.

The senior girls led the rest of the school in a cheer.

The slow songs are always a favorite part of the dance.

KEEPING THINGS STRAIGHT

Mat maids include (1st Row, l-r): E. Rodriguez, K. Carroll, N. Young, C. Saksa, M.L. Tobias, D. Fitzpatrick, (2nd Row): L. Guajardo, K. Ku-backi, J. Kometz, M.J. Grdina, B. Carter, P. Renda, M. Roman, and Mr. Rebey.

There are many statisticians for different sports. And they are all very important. Without them the coaches would be hassled with scores, averages, numbers, names, and the same for their opponents.

Remember traveling with a team to an away game and afterwards hearing the coaches yell at the team for their mistakes? And when operating the clock you accidentally added the points to the wrong team or you let the time run for a few seconds? Remember the crowd's reaction?

These girls are very dedicated and hard working. They should be recognized more for all they do.

K. Carroll helps J. Fritz phone in the results of the baseball game.

Taking turns video taping the wrestling meets are B. Carter and M.J. Grdina.

The girls basketball stats were: M.K. Hruskoc, P. Wajvoda, S. Rokosz, and D. Close Helping out with the volleyball stats were: D. Dobrowolski, M.J. Grdina, and M. Klein. Not pictured: D. Rogers and M.L. Tobias.

Sport's newest addition, softball, has their stats recorded by K. Kubacki.

Keeping tabs on the varsity boy's basketball team were P. Wajvoda, S. Pivovarnik, G. Riggins, M. Klein, and C. Stincic.

LET'S ALL GO TO THE LOBBY

Do you remember waiting in line for a whole halftime to get served? What about when you were at a football game on a cold night waiting for hot chocolate—and they run out!

Year after year Whiting students, along with the help of Mr. and Mrs. Sorota, stand behind the counter during football and basketball games trying to satisfy all the hungry fans.

Concession workers include (b-t, l-r): C. Waters, P. Stincic, K. Kuss, B. Stincic, J. Livingston, S. Harbin.

J. Livingston gets ready to put a hot dog to bed.

Even S. Harbin takes time out for a little refreshment.

STUDENTS MAKE LIFE EASIER FOR TEACHERS

Teachers' aides (l-r, b-t): T. Burden, C. Stincic, K. Carroll, L. Gacsko, L. Gormley, T. Johnson, B. Dado, B. Pustek, K. Kubacki, E. Rodriguez.

K. Clark, M. Fitzpatrick, D. Brannan, J. Wittman, R. Mindas, P. Bachusz, G. Cabrera, K. Gyure, M. Adams.

Hall monitors (l-r): A. Hanis, A. Casey, R. Kantowski, C. Vavrek, S. Pivovarnik, B. Evanich.

Do you remember trying to tutor elementary students who didn't even know how to read?

Teacher's Aides take time out to help students who need extra attention and to run errands for teachers.

Remember walking through the hall picking little white slips off the door? While people are following you to ask you to mark their name off?

Hall monitors also run errands for teachers and collect absentee slips daily.

Do you remember stamping dates on library cards and the backs of books? What about writing out library notices for books that are overdue?

Library aids help the librarian with chores around the library and running errands for her.

REMEMBERING THE PEOPLE...

BECUSE OUR SCHOOL IS SO SMALL, THERE IS A SPECIAL CLOSENESS BETWEEN STUDENTS. EVERYONE KNOWS EACH OTHER, AND PEOPLE HAVE MANY FRIENDS HERE.

THE TEACHERS ARE VERY HELPFUL AND FRIENDLY; THIS, TOO, IS BECAUSE OF OUR SMALL SIZE, AND CLOSENESS.

THE FOUNDATION

Mrs. Mustafa and Mrs. Banik, General Office secretaries, are always kept busy with announcements, typing, and organizing.

Always with work piled up on his desk the Principal, Mr. Kountoures, is willing to take time out to hear a problem.

The administration is the foundation of the school. Each person doing their job and working as a team helps better the school system.

The school board has been preparing for the NCA (North Central Association) evaluation. Meetings and plans have been made to improve the school and its system. These meetings are held every seven years.

The principal's door is always open for any student's problems. He is also kept busy making decisions about the students and the school.

The superintendent is in charge of how the school is run and if everyone is keeping up with their work.

The secretaries are very important because they help keep things organized for the principal, superintendent, and the school.

OF THE SCHOOL

The school board members are Mildred Kubon, President; Michael T. Jurbala, Member; William E. Senchak, Vice President; Jerome F. Vrabel, Secretary, Charles A. Kosalko Jr., Member.

Keeping things in order is Mr. Novak, the school's Superintendent.

The administrative secretaries are Mrs. Dado, Mrs. Kantowski, and Mrs. Shaner.

TEACHERS SEE EYE TO EYE

Do you remember when the North Central Association representatives came to W.H.S. and all the teachers were busy organizing their rooms and having meetings? They were all preparing themselves to welcome the evaluators.

Remember seeing a new face in the counseling department? Ms. Sharon Sheline is the new freshmen and sophomore counselor, and careers teacher. She is also kept busy by sponsoring the student council.

There was one memorable evening for a certain faculty member, Miss Beverly Sheldon. She was named teacher of the year. She is always kept busy in the library helping not only students, but also co-faculty members.

New and old teachers are always coming up with new ways to better the students' education.

REDUCTION IN NUMBERS

Remember when you started practice in March and there was still snow on the ground? All you could do was run inside. Then when it became nice out you could really show what you were able to do. This year's girls' track team has shown that they could do a lot. Although the addition of girls' softball has reduced the size of the team, they were still able to set three new records and place considerably well in most events.

Team members include (b-t, l-r): D. Dobrowski, K. Hansen, S. Ulloa, D. Kometz, M. Owens, J. Preneta, D. Fitzpatrick, W. Fehr-

Using all her might, T. Butler throws the discus for the school record.

OUR GOLFERS ARE REAL "SWINGERS"

P. Gurekovich hopes he won't fall in the water when he swings at his ball.

Remember getting out of school for $\frac{1}{2}$ of day for golf meets? Or when the big tournaments came around and you got out of school the whole day? Even though the golfers got out of school, they had to suffer through cold weather, while all the other students stayed in a nice warm school. But being out in that cold weather paid off. The "swinging" Oilers managed to place third in the conference, with the help of big wins over Morton, Noll, and Clark. They also had one of their best seasons with a final record of 11-5.

TRIPLE PLAY HIGHLIGHTS

Remember practicing inside the gym for weeks because the field was buried in snow? What about when you waited till 4:30 just to get into the batting cage?

Baseball is one of the most popular spring sports at Whiting. There is not a lot of glory playing high school ball, but there is satisfaction being out on the field for two hours and coming out on top. A highlight of the season came during a game at Clark. A line drive hit at Chris Klein ended up in a triple play when he stepped on third for a force out and threw to Norby Fehrman at first for the third out. It is plays like this that make the baseball season memorable.

Team members include (1st row, l-r): K.G. Kompier, D. Bobos, C. Klein, E. Fritz. (2nd row): J. Semanchik, M. Stapleton, G. Danielidis, T. Evanich, M. Adams, B. Justak. (3rd row): Coach Fritz, D. Dollins, P. Bachusz, M. Polak, N. Fehrman, B. Evanich, D. Holden, R. Del Real, D. Polak, and Coach Beno.

B. Justak concentrates on the game.

As the ball approaches, M. Polak prepares to clobber it.

The mask does wonders for K.G. Kompier.

FIRST SEASON ...

P. Wajvoda carefully checks out the guys in the stands.

The girls' softball team, the first in Whiting High School's history, "swung" into a successful season.

Remember hearing that a softball team was going to be added? And then you began all of those strenuous practices. Well those practices paid off because they led the Lady Oilers to a 10-2 record, which gave them their co-champ title.

Do you remember the Hammond High game? Who would ever think that loss would almost throw us out of the battle for first place? Remember losing to Morton when we needed to win? We were so nervous playing them—they shut us out 10-0. The only chance we had was for Clark to beat Morton which they did, 5-4. Well now we had to beat Clark to become co-champs with Morton. And we did it! We won 9-0!!

Leading the pitching staff is S. Ulm.

Being careful not to get picked off, C. Stincic takes a lead off of third.

FIRST PLACE CO-CHAMPS

With no trouble, D. Kovacek scoops one up for the Oilers.

"This is how you hit the ball," says Lefty Kantowski.

FUTURE LOOKS BRIGHT

The soccer team will have a bright future next year. The team was young, due to the fact that this was their first year playing. Although the soccer team's record was 0-8, this year proved to be a great challenge for both players and head coach, Mike Jancosek. Remember the coach yelling instructions from the sidelines that you couldn't hear? And remember all the running we had to do before the season started? And do you remember the game that we almost won against Gavit—but ended up losing in the last few minutes?

The shoes stand alone—shown are some of 1983's shoe fashions.

Soccer was added to the sports department, and J. Wittman demonstrates one of the basic moves.

Reading over the rules and objectives of the video game Scarfman are R. Mindas and C. Carroll.

Do you remember all of the trends and changes we saw this year? Remember when the cable TV was installed in the library? Or all of the video games that were constantly being played on the computer? And remember the new system of report cards? Everything computerized!!

Can you recall all of the styles that were worn this year? Izods, boat shoes, knickers, girls wearing ties, high-tops, and people wearing about ten shirts at once.

Another change around school was the addition of two new sports—soccer and softball.

Things that happened around town were Walgreen's opening, elections, and Town House bowling alley burning down.

J. Filipek on her way to a softball game.

With the new system of report cards, it takes longer to receive them. B. Carter wishes she never received it at all!

Ties and mini skirts were in fashion this year as W. Fehrman, D. Rogers, and G. Myers show us.

C. Zahorsky is amused at the fact that M. Wunder and P. Gurekovich think they are G.Q. models.

STRIVING FOR

Receiving M.V.P. Awards: for wrestling—G. Koleszarik; for football—R. Kometz; for basketball—D. Polak; and for tennis—B. Pustek.

Winning the Walter Heyden Award was N. Fehrman. He also received an honorable mention for basketball.

T. Bobos was honorable mention and D. Polak was All Conference for basketball.

T. Butler, S. Pivovarnik, and M. Postell were All Conference for volleyball.

RECOGNITION

E. Boland, S. Jancho, and J. Livingston were Regional qualifiers for wrestling.

C. Anderson was a Regional qualifier for Cross Country.

M. Postell and S. Pivovarnik were honorable mention and B. Mateja was selected for All Conference basketball.

Constant practicing and applying their abilities was a big factor in the minds of our athletes. Remember trying to impress the coaches and hoping that this season would be your best ever? Remember that becoming an All Conference Player was something you wanted badly? You knew that you finally had your chance to prove to yourself and everyone else that you could earn it? Remember that dedicated coaches, athletes, and fans all getting involved and working together is what continues to enable us to bring out the best in our athletes.

Awarded Academic All State honorable mentions were P. Bachusz and C. Stincic.

ACADEMIC

Remember taking tests and staring at your paper and other people to see if they were as confused as you were? Remember walking out of the classroom and talking over the test with friends and thinking you took an entirely different test, because your answers were so completely different? Some students were striving for the honor roll and academic awards, while others were just trying to get an average report card. Remember studying for tests and quizzes from 6 different classes and you seemed to have all your tests on the same day? Hoping that it will pay off, students continue to study; and knowing that it will pay off, teachers continue to be as helpful as possible.

Sophomore Scholarship "W" winners were: (1st row, l-r): M. Rowden, S. Rokosz, B. Stephens, J. Preneta, (2nd row): T. O'Keefe, T.

Marcotte, M. Grenchik, (3rd row): B. Filipek, J. Sandrick, M. Mazur, and T. Stefanich.

P. Renda was chosen for the Daughters of the American Revolution Award.

Junior Scholarship "W" winners were: S. Blesic, T. Gazda, C. Gregor, and B. Mateja.

ACHIEVEMENTS

Senior Scholarship "W" winners were: B. Pustek, M. Harbin, J. Fritz, and M. Grdina.

Hoosier State Representatives were: B. Pustek, M. Harbin, J. Fritz, and M. Grdina.

Incentives

Hoosier State Alternates were: C. Zahorsky, K. Shebish, J. Buranosky, and M. Wunder.

Honored with the Hugh O'Brian Award was R. Rutherford.

HOEDOWN COMES

Betty Sue Simpson (S. Otic) cannot wait to barbecue them chickens.

The 1983 play production, HOEDOWN HEAVEN, was another enjoyable success.

The entire atmosphere was based on the old west. Remember hauling the bales of hay to spread on the floor? And remember the live chickens on stage. And when the chickens accidentally got out of their cage and were running loose in Nathan Hale?

Once again the windows were painted and built out to look like a western town.

The dinner was again served by twenty singing waiters and waitresses. The menu was of western cooking. And oil lamps provided lighting on the tables.

After dinner, everyone sat back and watched the play. The setting was a small town named Oleana and took place in a small cafe owned by Pearlie Mae Watts. The theme was centered around the nights hoedown. Remember when Rooster kicked over a plant on stage during a performance? Or when Pearlie Mae missed a line and the whole cast skipped two pages?

The evening was accented by the cast, waiters, and waitresses square dancing from a professional caller.

Student directors were M. Fitzpatrick and C. Jerzyk.

Cast of HOEDOWN HEAVEN: D. Banaszak, T. O'Keefe, D. Terry, M. Hruskocy, S. Otic, R. Kienzle, B. Cinotto.

TO WHITING

M. Wunder helps J. Hart with a bushel of apples while D. Kovacek and B. Evanich begin raking.

Making certain nobody barbeques the chickens is A. Westerfield.

Preparing food at the chuck wagon are M. Harbin and D. Rogers.

Waiter N. Fehrman and waitress P. Wajvoda make sure the horse is fed before the performance.

PROM 1983

"TRULY" A NIGHT TO REMEMBER

Remember that hit song by Lionel Richie called "Truly"? Well 41 couples who attended prom on Friday the 13th do! It was held at the Broadmoor Country Club in Merrillville. The evening began with pictures taken by Mr. Lovasko. Do you remember how the juniors spent $45 on wood for a bridge to stand on, and the ceiling was too low to use it? Next

K. Shebib, M. Klein, and their dates, M. Powell and B. Kasper shared their table with was the dinner. Remember how you could barely finish all of your prime rib? After dinner, the couples danced to the music of CELEBRATION. Remember how long it took the girls to get their dates to dance to the fast songs? But after they were out there it was a lot of fun! Most people were sorry to see the evening end, but it will hold many memories for all.

the balloons sent to N. Fehrman and P. Wajcoda.

B. Mateja and her date T. Wargo are "Truly" in love.

K. Rickard and M. Wunder are positioned for their prom picture by Mr. Lovasko.

R. Kometz and L. Gormley had a wonderful time together.

S. Witzczak, K. Guyre, T. Butler, and R. Atteberry await their prime rib dinners.

If M. McGowan's and L. Gacsko's dates wouldn't dance with them—they danced with each other.

J. Chorba and R. Kantowski share a tender moment on the dance floor.

J. Fritz and K. Carroll display one of this year's prom fashions.

M. Grenchik gives B. Harding and M. Grdina their prom favors.

NEVER ENDING...

Remember when we started out as freshmen and looked forward to June 1, 1983? We thought it would take forever to come—but it got here so quickly.

During the year we were measured for caps and gowns and ordered our announcements.

Do you remember our graduation practices? We tried to line up correctly, learn how the ceremony went, and take our last picture as a group.

And then the long awaited day arrived. There were some tears of joy and a few of sorrow on leaving high school. But every graduating senior will take with them many memories and experience for the future.

Faces of anticipation.

K. Gyure hopes his partner is walking in at the same time.

As C. Zahorsky walks in, she reflects on her four years at Whiting High School.

... ALWAYS BEGINNING

"Finally!" thinks B. Daly as he receives his diploma from Mrs. Kubon.

The seniors wait to be officially graduated.

Copy Preparation

The senior class officers were (l-r): P. Wajvoda, President; C. Stincic, Vice President; Mr. Laub, Sponsor; M.K. Hruskoc, Secretary; S. Pivovarnik, Treasurer.

Take a Good,
Hard Look at Tomorrow,
Today!

Because tomorrow is just around the corner, and your future will depend a lot on the decisions you make today. Your career goal is probably the single most important decision you'll make, so consider it carefully. Consider your interests and skills, and then consider working for a company that will allow you the opportunity to develop and use them effectively.

At Inland Steel we like to bring out the best in people. We do it through training programs, and by offering growth potential. We need solid employees on the production lines, in the craft apprenticeships, in our laboratories, and in the offices.

We've built a strong reputation as a first rate steelmaker, and we built it with the help of our employees. But we don't rest on past laurels. Like you, we're looking at tomorrow.

SUMMER TEAMS BEGIN NOW

BRIAN TAKES A LAST WALK

NOW COMES THE EXAMS

HERE'S A FACE WE'LL MISS

MONICA'S LAST TIME LEAVING

REMEMBERING THE END OF SCHOOL...

DO YOU REMEMBER, HOW AT THE BEGINNING OF SCHOOL, YOU THOUGHT THE YEAR WOULD NEVER END? IT SEEMS THAT IT WENT BY SO QUICKLY. ALL OF YOUR WORRIES OF HOW YOU'D DO ARE OVER. DO YOU REMEMBER ALL OF THE HAPPENINGS OF 1982-83? WE BEAT CLARK IN FOOTBALL, AND ONCE IN BASKETBALL! WE SAW IMPROVEMENTS IN OUR SCHOOL. WE WERE A PART OF THE N. C. A. EVALUATIONS. WE SAW TWO NEW SPORTS ADDED. WE SAW MANY STUDENTS RECOGNIZED ACADEMICALLY AND ATHLETICALLY. AND WE SAW FOUR GRADES OF STUDENTS WHO WERE AS CLOSE TO EACH OTHER AS A SCHOOL COULD BE.

PLANS ARE MADE NOW FOR THE NEXT YEAR, AND THESE PLANS WON'T INCLUDE MANY OF PEOPLE WHO ARE LEAVING--BUT WE'LL ALWAYS HAVE MEMORIES OF 1982-83, AND OF WHITING HIGH SCHOOL. AND WHEN WE LOOK BACK WE'LL SAY TO EACH OTHER, "DO YOU REMEMBER WHEN...?"

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

A yearbook is a collection of everything that has happened in the last year. One will find all of the classes, sports, and clubs that they were in shown in the yearbook.

This year's REFLECTOR was different in its being the first summer yearbook. Now all of the spring activities will be included in the book.

Our REFLECTOR staff this year was an especially close one. Everyone worked hard together and helped each other to make the yearbook special.

We'd like to thank Mr. Lovasko, our professional photographer, for rushing to give us pictures when deadlines were coming up. Another thanks goes to Mr. Kingsley, our Herff Jones Representative, for answering our cries of "Help!" when we needed him. He was always there to advise us on any layouts or bring us supplies that we often ran out of.

We would also like to thank our advisor, Mr. Paul Laub. Besides his many other activities around school, he always found time to double check layouts and take many pictures that no one else did.

A final thanks goes to the West Lafayette yearbook, THE TRIDENT, which was a "guiding force" throughout the year!! (The staff will understand!)

The end of another year brings the end of another yearbook, and the departure of many staff members. We'd like to say thank you and goodbye to all of them, and too all who were a part of this yearbook.
